FORMER MEXICAN MINISTER SHAKES FIST AT U. S. FLAG

Querido Moheno Virulently Criticises Policy of United States Towards Mexico

IS COMING TO AMERICA

Says Progressive Party Had "Secret Platform"

ROOSEVELT KNEW IT

Looking to Disruption of Mexico and Acquisition of Territory by U. S.—"Show Wilson's Crime Against Mexico"

Vera Cruz, July 10.—Querido Moheno, former Mexican minister of commerce and labor, before departing today on board the Espagne, virulently criticised the policy of the United States towards Mexico. As he sat in the forward saloon of the French liner, Senor Moheno looked through a port hole toward the American flag, flying in Vera Cruz and shook his fist in rage.

He insisted he was in position to produce proofs that there existed a "secret platform" of the Progressive party in the United States of which Col. Theodore Roosevelt was cognizant and in which he concurred, looking to the disruption of Mexico and the acquisition ultimately by the United States of all the territory between the Rio Grande and Panama.

Claims Conclusive Evidence.

He said that Francisco Escudero, who is minister of foreign relations in Carranza's cabinet, has letters which to him are conclusive evidence of his allegations, and declared he hoped to be able to produce these letters at the proper time.

"And not only were the leaders of the Progressive party pledged to this policy," he added, "but politicians of both the Republican and Democratic parties had promised their secret support."

Says Wilson Subscribed to It.

He declared that President Wilson himself had subscribed to this "iniquitous" correspondence as evidenced by his attitude toward Mexico. Not a single American in all the hundred million population of the United States can give satisfactory answer as to why those troops are on shore in Vera Cruz.

"To show President Wilson's crime against Mexico, the greatest in the history of modern nations," is the announced object of Senor Moheno's trip to the United States by way of Cuba. He arrived here this morning on the Espagne from Puerto Mexico and said he would not go ashore.

Moheno said he hoped while in the United States to convince the American people of the enormity of the "crime committed not only by President Wilson but by all the political factors in the United States regardless of party."

Oil Interests Not Responsible.

Moheno added that he did not agree with the opinion that the oil interests were responsible for the revolutions in Mexico. He ascribed them to the government as directed by its politicians.

Senor Moheno did not have any material hope that the overthrow of General Huerta by the Constitutionals would be followed by peace.

Moheno frankly admitted belief that armed intervention in Mexico finally would come. He promised to reveal on his arrival in New York the exact method of the killing of the late President Madero and Vice President Pino Suarez.

"I will say now that I am confident General Huerta had nothing to do with the assassination of these men," he continued.

When asked if he was going ashore while in Vera Cruz, Moheno replied: "Going ashore? Not I. It is not a pleasant spectacle for any patriotic Mexican. However, I am not afraid to. I do not fear the Americans nor do I fear my own people.

Not Running from Rebels.

"I left President Huerta's cabinet because I was asked to," continued Moheno. "Huerta did not give me a reason. I am not running away because I fear the rebels when they get there and their coming is inevitable."

Traveling on the same boat are Gen. Joaquin Maas and Col. Mario Maas, relatives of Huerta, and their families. The only apparent reason for the flight of the Maas brothers was escape from the capital before it falls, the inevitability of which they also admitted.

Brig. Gen. Funston sent an officer aboard the Espagne before the ship docked to ascertain the intentions of Moheno and Gen. Maas. He feared to have them come ashore because of the probability of an unfriendly reception by Mexicans. Both were assured military protection.

He Trembles Visibly.

Senor Moheno trembled visibly while talking to the lieutenant and he apparently was holding himself in restraint. He assured the officer he had no desire to leave the ship. Gen. Maas was very surly. He thanked the lieutenant for Gen. Funston's offer, but with noticeable sarcasm assured him that none of his party would land under the American flag.

No Change at Guaymas.

Nogales, Senora, Mexico, July 10.—There has been no change at Guaymas, General Alvarado, commander of the Constitutionalist forces there, telegraphed from Cruz De Piedra at 4:45 P. M. today. Reports reached here yesterday that the Federals had most of their equipment loaded on steamers and ewere ready to evacuate.

Major Holmdahl Deported.

El Paso, Texas, July 10.—Major E. L. Holmdahl, a former American army officer, recently on Gen. Villa's staff, was deported from Sonora tonight. He was released yesterday at Hermosillo from a dungeon where he said he had been imprisoned ten days with an insane man as cell mate.

Holmdahl was charged by Gen. Alvarado, commander of the Constitutionalists attacking Guaymas, with giving information to Americans at El Paso relative to ammunition smuggling. He said he had expected to be executed. The French and the United States consuls at Hermosillo interceded in his behalf.

Hector Jara Arrested.

Vera Cruz, July 10.—Hector Jara, representative of the Constitutionalists in Vera Cruz, was arrested tonight by order of Brigadier General Funston, on a charge of seeking to incite Mexicans to make a demonstration against former Ministeer Moheno. El Dictamen, Mexican daily issue, issued a dodger today urging the people to display antagonism to Moheno. The paper was ordered suspended temporarily.

SEARCH FOR TRAIN ROBBERS WITHOUT DEFINITE RESULT.

"Katy Flyer" Held Up and Robbed by Bandits Last Night.

St. Louis, July 10.—Search for the bandits who held up the westbound "Katy Flyer" on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, 60 miles northwest of here last night continued today without definite result. It was believed the bandits went down the Missouri river in a skiff. The number of men who took part in the hold-up is uncertain.

Members of the train crew said there were but two bandits. Charles Pfeiffer, a track walker, who surprised the bandits as they were robbing the express car, said there were five.

He said he saw the engine and express cars running without passenger coaches and that as the train stopped he ran up to see what was the matter. He looked into the express car and was commanded to throw up his hands. He said he was kept under guard by two men who guarded the express messengers and two postal clerks.

A third robber, he said, guarded the engineer, while two rifled the safe.

As the bandits left, said Pfeiffer, they ordered the engineer to run his engine and the express car a few miles to Klondike, Mo., and to stay there a while before backing down to the passenger coaches. The engineer did as he was told.

MAKING HER LAST TRIP UNDER AMERICAN FLAG.

Battleship Mississippi Arrives at Newport News, Va.

Newport News, Va., July 10.—Making her last trip under the American flag the battleship Mississippi which was recently sold to the Greek government, arrived here today from Old Point and proceeded to the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company where she is to undergo minor repairs before being delivered to her new owners about August 1. The Mississippi was accompanied by the armored cruiser North Carolina to which vessel will be transferred the hydro-aeroplane launching device and other equipment now aboard the former. The cruiser is expected to remain here three weeks.

Lieutenant B. L. Smith, in charge of the navy aviation corps of the Mississippi, preceded the ships here flying in his hydro from Old Point to this city, ten miles in six minutes. He will remain here to superintend the transfer of the nation's property. Lieutenant Smith recently flew from the deck of the Mississippi to Old Point, 35 miles in 20 minutes establishing what is said to be a record.

PRESENT SCHOOL SYSTEM ATTACKED

Public Schools of Today "Namby-Pamby" Places

DR. FRANCIS APPLAUDED

He Says "There is More Art in One Well-Selected and Well-Made Garment Than in All the Art Galleries of Europe."

St. Paul, Minn., July 10.—J. H. Francis, superintendent of schools, Los Angeles, Cal., enlivened a business session of the National Educational Association today by a vigorous attack on the present school system. He denounced the inefficiency of the average teacher and characterized as soul-wreckers "certain powerful interests that are blocking all forms of educational progress."

Many leading educators criticised his "sensationalism," but the storms of applause that interrupted him at every sentence indicated the general attitude of the delegates.

The annual convention closed tonight.

"Our public schools of today," said Dr. Francis, "are namby-pamby places to which we go because it is the custom, and some of us become good citizens in spite of them.

"Education is to make us more scholarly, enough so that we may separate ourselves from the common herd. Teachers who train a child to believe he cannot be respectable unless he is a professional man are a menace to society."

The hall rang with applause when Dr. Francis shouted:

"God bless the girl who refuses to study algebra—a study that has caused many girls to lose their souls."

Continuing, he said:

"Give our girls courses in costume designing instead of mathematics, and life and art and morality and godliness will mean more to them. There is more art in one well-selected and well-made garment than in all the art galleries of Europe."

Use of the permanent funds of the association to establish twelve demonstration and experimental schools in various parts of the country, under management of a committee headed by the United States Commissioner of Education, was advocated by Georgia Alexander, supervising principal of schools of Indianapolis.

United States Commissioner P. P. Claxton partially endorsed the proposal. He contended, however, that the Federal government should provide a fund of $3,000,000 a year to promote and maintain experimental schools.

REAR ADMIRAL SOUTHERLAND PLACED ON RETIRED LIST.

Having Reached the Age Limit of Service, 62 Years.

Washington, July 10.—One of the very few men who rose to the highest rank in the navy from his position as an enlisted man—Rear Admiral William H. H. Southerland—was placed upon the retired list today by reason of having reached the statutory age of 62 years.

He was born in New York and appointed as a naval apprentice in 1868 and because of peculiar aptitude and excellent service was transferred to the Naval Academy from which he graduated with honors. During Theodore Roosevelt's incumbency as assistant secretary of the navy, Southerland was his naval aide.

SPECULATION UP IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT

As to What the Old-Line Republicans Will Do

With Reference to a Candidate for Congress—No Serious Opposition to Stedman Anticipated For This Year.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—There is considerable speculation in the Fifth district as to what position the old-line Republicans will take with reference to a candidate for Congress. There were those who, earlier in the year, believed that if the Republicans and Progressives could be united and nominate together a candidate that he would stand a fair show of being elected. Jack Albright and other well known leaders had visited all sections of the district in an effort to get such an organization and union of forces as to make this possible. Encouraged by the election of Hon. John M. Morehead six years ago, Republicans still feel that the Fifth district is a good battle ground.

But the nomination of Martin F. Douglas last week by the Progressive party has apparently set at rest all probability of very serious opposition to Congressman Stedman this time in the convention, which was very poorly attended, Progressive leaders declared that there could be no fusion with the Republicans. Those who took the position intimated that they had authority to make such a declaration from the great leader of the Progressives. Even if the Republicans should now endorse Mr. Douglas they would give him only lukewarm support. It is not likely that Mr. Douglas would withdraw even if a man agreeable to all factions opposed to Major Stedman would be found.

It is a fact that postoffice fights have left some Democrats who are opposed to Major Stedman, but Democrats do not believe that he will lose many votes on this account. Members of other parties, however, believe that it could be used very effectively against him. They feel that if a strong, younger, vigorous man could be nominated, supported by Progressives, Republicans and Roosevelt Republicans that he could be elected.

No call has been issued for a Republican convention, and there seems to be no one willing to express any opinion as to what that party in the district will do. It is possible that it will not nominate and not endorse any candidate, as it did two years ago when C. W. Curry, a Progressive, was the only man who opposed Major Stedman.

Killed by Live Wire.

The funeral of Roy Lindsey, who was killed in the Dixie building Wednesday night by coming in contact with a highly charged electric wire, was held this afternoon at the home of his parents on Keogh street. Interment was in Greene Hill cemetery. The local council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics had charge of the burial service. The deceased was a young man of splendid habits and was popular.

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS DID NOT MATERIALIZE.

Predictions of Unionist Press Were Not Fulfilled.

London, July 10.—Predictions by the Unionist press that today would see startling developments in the Ulster situation were not fulfilled. Sir Edward Carson, Ulster Unionist leader, arrived at Belfast and was accorded a reception of a military character, after which "the provisional government" held its first formal meeting and passed a series of resolutions, authorizing the executive to take steps to enforce Ulster's opposition to home rule.

Unionist papers declare the gravest crisis is at hand in Ulster, and some have sent large staffs to that province to report events.

Liberal papers contend that Carson's followers are bluffing to influence the coming debates on the House of Commons on the amending bill and frighten the government into yielding exclusion terms demanded by the Carsonites.

LABOR UNION FILES SUIT FOR $350,000.

Against Group of Companies Described as "Lumber Trust."

Chicago, July 10.—A suit by a labor union against a group of companies described as the "lumber trust," asking $350,000 damages was filed here today. The suit was the result of the action of Circuit Judge Heard, a few hours before in dissolving an injunction which for two years restrained the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners from picketing and other action in its strike against the Anderson & Lind Manufacturing Company. Damages were asked to cover attorneys' fees, court expenses, salaries of officers, loss of time for union members and reimbursement for the alleged loss of contracts during the term of the injunction.

DEFAULTING FUSIBLE PLUG "HANGED" IN WASHINGTON.

On Miniature Mahogany Gallows in Department of Commerce.

Washington, July 10.—On a miniature mahogany gallows in the Department of Commerce was "hanged" today the fusible plug that failed to operate and caused a boiler explosion that killed 11 of the crew of the steamer Jefferson, off Cape Henry. Secretary Redfield acted as chief executioner at the "hanging ceremonies," which was intended to emphasize the necessity for "safety first". New steamboat regulations were adopted as the result of the explosion on the Jefferson.

ANTI-TRUST BILLS READY BY MONDAY

This the Determination of Senate Committees

LABORING EARNESTLY

Inter-State Trade Commission Bill is Completed by Committee, After Making Two Amendments. Senate Is Waiting.

Washington, July 10.—Determined to perfect the administration anti-trust bills by Monday if possible, the Senate judiciary and inter-State commerce committees labored today long and earnestly. Tomorrow they will keep at it, the Senate having adjourned until Monday to give ample opportunity for the work.

The interstate commerce committee succeeded in perfecting the inter-State trade commission bill aready before the Senate, adding two important amendments and determining not to amend the much questioned section five in which "unfair competition" is declared unlawful. The amendments to the commission bill agreed to by the committee procide:

That no order of the proposed Trade Commission for or against a corporation shall be used as evidence in any subsequent prosecution brought against a corporation under the Sherman law.

That nothing in the act to create the Trade Commission shall be construed as amending the Sherman Act, nor in any way affecting the provisions of that act as it stands on the statute books.

During the discussion of the first amendment, some senators thought it would be well to permit the admission of orders favorable to corporations in cases of subsequent conviction, merely for the consideration of the court in mitigating sentence. An effort may yet be made to have this incorporated in the bill.

The second amendment was submitted by Chairman Newlands because of widespread claims that the proposed measure would weaken the Sherman Act.

House Bill Taken Up.

The House bill giving the Inter-State Commerce Commission jurisdiction over the issuance of securities of common carriers also was taken up by the committee and it will endeavor to complete its amendments to the bill by tomorrow night.

Some members of the committee want the House bill strengthened so as to give the commission absolute control over the issuance of railroad securities at all times.

The Clayton bill as it passed the House was considered all day by the judiciary committee, most of the discussion bearing on the sections relating to interlocking directorates and holding companies. The committee hopes to have its report on this bill ready by Monday also.

Many tentative changes have been made in phraseology of the bill, in some cases the committee having narrowed the meaning where they thought it too broad in the original measure. When the committee adjourned for the day, it had under consideration the sections relating to labor unions, and some changes are expected, though nothing definite was accomplished today.

Considerable sentiment is favor of consolidating the three anti-trust bills is developing in the Senate, and some Senators said today that this might be done when the measures reached the Senate floor next week. The main purpose for such action would be to expedite completion of the trust legislative programme.

INTEREST CENTERS IN REBEL ARMIES

Washington Watching Operations of Constitutionalists

CARRANZA STILL "MUM"

Naon and Suarez Return from New York Where They Talked With Huerta Delegates—No Comment.

Washington, July 10.—Ministers Naon, of Argentina, and Suarez, of Chile, returned tonight from New York, where they talked with Huerta delegates to the Niagara Falls Mexican peace conference. As Gen. Carranza has sent no final reply to the mediators' proposal for a joint conference to discuss plans for a provisional government, neither of the South American ministers would comment on dispatches from Saltillo announcing that a majority of the Constitutionalist generals had voted against such a conference.

Interest here in the Mexican situation is centering on the operations of the Constitutionalist armies. With the commands of Generals Villa, Pablo, Gonzales and Obregon preparing to clear away the few remaining obstacles and march tor Mexico City, some 50,000 strong, Carranza agents in Washington declare it only is a matter of weeks before Huerta will be driven out and a provisional military government set up at the capital under the plan of Guadaloupe.

Dispatches tonight from Rear Admiral Howard on the Pacific coast told of the agreement for the evacuation of Guaymas by the Federals. Admiral Howard also advised that he had received reports of the evacuation of Acapulco and that the Japanese cruiser Idzuma had left Mazatlan for Acapulco.

Clarence Gunther and five other Americans concerning whom there have been queries at the State Department, were reported at Guaymas.

No Movement Southward Yet.

El Paso, Texas, July 10.—Despite assurances from both Villa and Carranza supporters that Villa would resume immediately his campaign against Huerta, no portion of his army has begun preparations for a southern movement, so far as known tonight. It was estimated that 12,000 of his 18,000 soldiers remained in the country districts of Chihuahua, 500 miles from the war zone south of Aguas Callentes. Gen. Villa was at Torreon tonight.

Carbajal Takes Oath of Office.

Mexico City, July 10.—Francisco Carbajal, chief justice of the Supreme Court, today took the oath of office as foreign minister. Other new ministers of of Huerta's cabinet were sworn in a follows:

Commerce and Industry, Salome Botella, former governor of Nuevo Leon; Communications, Arturo Alcaradejo; Agriculture, General Carlos Rincon Gallardo.

Roberto Esteva-Ruiz, sub-secretary of foreign relations, who has been acting secretary for some time past, was slated for minister of Commerce and Industry, but at the alst moment it was decided to keep him in the Foreign Office. Huerta's other ministers retain their portfolios. The Chamber of Deputies will meet Monday to discuss the Presidential elections. It is understood they will be declared null.

London July 11.—A Peking dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says China is about to apply to the bankers of the five power group for another loan of $100,000,000.

EXAMINATION OF MRS. CARMAN IS POSTPONED

Eleven Days Before She Can Hope to Leave Jail

District Attorney Gets Delay in Order to Better Prepare for Hearing. Her Attorneys Agree for Price.

Mineola, N. Y., July 10.—It will be 11 days at least before Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, accused of slaying Mrs. Louise Bailey, can hope to leave the Nassau county jail here, according to an agreement reached late today by her counsel, Geo. M. Levy, and District Attorney Louis J. Smith, Mrs. Carman's examination before a justice of the peace, set for Monday when she had hoped she would go free because of lack of evidence against her, has been deferred until July 21st. This change was asked for by the prosecutor that he might present the case before a grand jury and also have more time to seek corroboratic and stronger evidence.

Her Counsel Consented.

Mrs. Carman's counsel consented to the postponement under stipulation that Mr. Levy should have the privilege of examining Edwood T. Bardes, witness for the prosecution. It was chiefly on Bardes' testimony that the warrant for Mrs. Carman's arrest is based. Bardes was passing the Carman home when the revolver was thrust through a window of the physician's office, he testified, and he saw

TORREON CONFERENCE COMPLETES ITS LABORS

To the Satisfaction of General Carranza

It Is Announced That All Generals of the Division of the North Have Re-affirmed Their Allegiance to Carranza.

Saltillo, Mexico, July 10., via Laredo, Texas, July 10.—The conference in Torreon which met to adjust differences between Carranza and Villa has completed its labors to the satisfaction of the first chief of the Constitutionalists, according to announcement here tonight of Gustav Espinosa Morlos, General Carranza's private secretary. Details of the conference were not made public.

It was announced, however, that all generals of the division of the north commanded by Villa have re-affirmed their recognition of Carranza's authority and again expressed their adherence to the plan of Guadaloupe providing for Carranza exercising executive authority in case of Constitutionalist success until elections can be held.

It was stated that troops under General Villa and those under General Pablo Gonzales would move southward tomorrow in a combined campaign with Mexico City as their goal.

The expressions from Villa's generals came in lengthy telegrams of a congratulatory nature to which Carranza replied similarly.

NO TRACE IS FOUND OF MISSING WOMEN

Whereabouts of Mrs. Dennis Still a Mystery

VICTIMS OF CONSPIRACY

This the Belief of Mother of the Two Sisters—Had Turned Over $10,000 to One Victor Innes, to Invest.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Information still was lacking here tonight as to the whereabouts of Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis, believed to have signed a letter received here which said she had murdered her sister in New Orleans, was preparing to kill her brother in San Francisco and then would commit suicide.

Police officials in San Francisco, New Orleans and Houston, Dallas and San Antonio, Texas, where Mrs. Dennis and her sister, Miss Beatrice Nelms, planned to visit, failed to find any trace of them.

Mrs. John W. Nelms, mother of the missing women and recipient of the mystery letter, continued to believe that her daughters were the victims of a conspiracy. They had a draft for $1,450 cashed in New Orleans on June 13, after their departure from here, the proceeds of which were to be used in completing Mexican investments made by Mrs. Dennis.

Checks issued by Mrs. Dennis for previous sums for investments were made in favor of a "Victor Innes," it developed today. The two women left New Orleans for Texas on June 14, supposedly to meet the man giving his name as Innes in either Houston or San Antonio.

$10,000 Turned Over to Innes.

The total sum turned over to Innes for investment amounted to approximately $10,000, according to Mrs. Nelms.

No information as to whether the business transaction was completed ever has been received by Mrs. Nelms. A telegram from Houston on June 21 signed "Bee," for Beatrice, told only of an enjoyable time in Houston. A week later another telegram was received from New Orleans signed "L. &B." for Eloise and Beatrice, which said that they were going farther west. This indicated that they had returned from Texas.

This was also the last message received by Mrs. Nelms until last Tuesday when a typewritten letter, signed with the name of Mrs. Dennis, was received from San Francisco, where it had been mailed on July 3. It told of the alleged death of her sister, her plans for killing Marshall Nelms, her brother, and then drowning herself. It was accompanied by a handwritten note indicating despondency. Appended to the typewritten note was the following sentence referring to Mrs. Dennis' divorced husband:

"I am sending a copy of this to Walter Dennis in New York."

Innes first met Mrs. Dennis while she was in Reno, Nev., about a year and a half ago, Mrs. Nelms said. He is supposed to have been a lawyer and to have assisted Mrs Dennis in obtaining a divorce there.

Another Woman.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. Margaret Mims, of Minnesota, and representing herself to be an aunt of Innes, was in Atlanta about June 1, according to the mother. Innes later came and remained for a short time consulting with Mrs. Dennis about the Mexican investments.

In compliance with a request from her daughter, Beatrice, Mrs. Nelms said today that she had sent an express package containing some wearing apparel to San Antonio, addressing it "in care Mrs. Margaret Mims."

Information from San Antonio late today said that the package had not been delivered.

Seek Innes in Vain.

Portland, Ore., July 10.—City detectives today vainly sought Victor E. Innes in connection with the disappearance of two daughters of Mrs. J. W. Nelms. The chief of police of Atlanta telegraphed a query as to whether Innes ever had been a United States district attorney in Oregon. The records don't show that he ever held that office.

Description of the Women.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—The following descriptions of the two women were made public by the police department here tonight:

"Beatrice Nelms is a blonde, 28 years old. She is a self-reliant business woman and brusque in manner. She is of medium height and has blue eyes.

"Eloise Nelms Dennis is a brunette, 30 years old. She is slender and talkative. She is slightly taller than Beatrice."

The younger woman was engaged in the real estate business here in which she is credited with making a considerable fortune. Mrs. Nelms, mother of the missing woman, is wealthy.

THE WINTERS ARE DISMISSED.

Not Sufficient Evidence to Warrant Holding Them.

New Castle, Ind., July 10.—The case against Dr. W. A. Winters, and his wife, Mrs. Byrd Winters, who were charged with conspiracy in connection with the disappearance of the doctor's 9-year-old daughter, Catherine Winters was dismissed here today by the prosecuting attorney on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence against the defendants. William R. Cooper who also was charged with the conspiracy, was set free. Affidavits were filed against the three defendants May 30, 1914, by Robert A. Abel, an Indianapolis detective. Catherine Winters mysteriously disappeared March 20, 1913.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS PREPARE FOR CONTEST

Over Confirmation of Jones' Nomination

Wilson's Supporters Getting Ready for the Fray—Few Developments as to Nomination of Paul M. Warburg.

Washington, July 10.—Democratic Senators who intend to stand by President Wilson in his fight for confirmation of the nomination of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, today prepared for the contest when it reaches the Senate through the unfavorable recommendation yesterday of the banking and currency committee.

As to the committee's action in postponing further consideration of the nomination of Paul M. Warburg, of New York, unless he accepts the committee's invitation to submit to questioning, there were few actual developments today. The President is determined to champion Mr. Warburg's nomination to the end, the New York banker having agreed to let his name stand should the committee not insist on his appearance.

The committee will meet Monday, after which Senator Hitchcock, acting chairman, expects to submit to the Senate the adverse report on the nomination of Mr. Jones. A favorable minority report will be made. In connection with the majority report an effort may be made to introduce the testimony of Jones relating to his connection with the so-called Harvester and Zinc trusts which formed the basis for opposition to his confirmation. The first test of strength may come over such an effort.

$200,000 FOR RELIEF SALEM FIRE SUFFERERS

Appropriated by Congress in Spite of Fitzgerald

Chairman of Appropriations Committee of the House Vigorously Opposes Such Amendment to Sundry Civil Bill.

Washington, July 10.—Congress today appropriated $200,000 for the relief of sufferers from the Salem, Mass., fire. The House, in spite of vigorous opposition led by Chairman Fitzgerald of the Appropriations committee, accepted by a vote of 161 to 66 a Senate amendment to the Sundry Civil bill to provide the money. The President had urged the appropriation in a special message, and the Massachusetts delegations had been pressing for action for a week.

Representative Fitzgerald told the House that while the sympathy of every one went out to the destitute people of Salem, it was no part of the Federal functions to appropriate money for them.

"If Congress initiates the policy of making such appropriations," he said, "then, whenever there is a flood in the Mississippi and the Great Yazoo delta is overflowed, whenever fire or other disaster or catastrophe affects any people of the United States, we may expect the State governments and localities to come to the Federal Treasury as the easiest place to get money to take care of the destitute and helpless."

Mr. Fitzgerald called attention to the refusal of Congress to appropriate for victims of floods in the Ohio and the Mississippi valleys and other great disasters which left thousands of people homeless.

DECISION PROMISED BY JULY 18 IN HAL CHASE CASE.

By Judge Bussell, Who is Hearing Restraining Injunction.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 10.—A decision on the plea to dissolve the injunction restraining Hal Cahse, former first baseman of the Chicago Americans, from playing with the Buffalo Federals, was promised by July 18 by Justice Herbert P. Bussell at the close of arguments here today.

The grounds on which the Federal League sought a dissolution was based largely on the allegation that the Chicago team did not come into court with clean hands because it is operating in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Attorney Addington for Chase, intimated that further proceedings against the National Commission under the anti-trust law were under consideration.

Attorneys for the Chicago team argued that the playing of baseball cannot be designated as commerce in the sense that it is used in the Sherman act.

MIKE DOOLAN

Red McGhee says:

Ol' Mike's another one of those who put aside his old league clo'es an' did the Fed league dive. An' since he heard the shekels tease he's busier'n a flock of bees around the Baltimore hive. At short there's lots o' bells on Mike. The ol' leagues ain't got many like this infield demon frog. He's got a lot o' years to go an' don't bet any kopecks, bo, that he'll go on the hog.

McGraw touts Mike as A-1 class an' Muggsy isn't like to pass on anything that's punk. He knows the fruit both green and ripe—bank on it, birdie, it's a pipe he don't O. K. no junk. Mike doesn't make a lot o' fuss 'bout fieldin' but an octopus can't cover no more space. His stops are sure, his pegs are neat, there's darn few runners who can beat his throwin' to first base.

The Baltimore Fed fans worship him; they like his style, his peg, his vim, his all 'round brand o' play. In Philly town they miss him, too, when dinky base hits wander through a couple times a day. He's some pippin', bo, to lose. Tain't everyone can fill his shoes or field at Mike's old gait. They've tried a bunch, they'll try some more an' fuss around a heap before they'll find Mike Doolan's mate.

THEATRICAL

While it has been the history of "movies" that they present big shows on Saturday, yet none, upto date, has offered a special feature in connection with the week-end bill. It remained for the Grand Theatre to break this custom, and so today, in connection with a superb Saturday show, will be offered a special two-part release, Pathe's wonderful masterpiece of "Antony and Cleopatra." It is a massive production, with magnificent costumes and scenery and a notable cast. The price of admission will not be advanced one penny. It will be the same old tiny 5 cents, afternoon and night. A cast of notables will appear, including such popular Thespians as Milton Coyle, Betty Gray and W. C. Chamberlain. Miss Framan, the charming and brilliant Wurlitzer orchestra virtuoso, will add much to the presentation by rendering special and superb incidental music.

Another swell film on today's big menu at The Grand is the Vitagraph's "Out in Happy Hollow," with charming Margaret Gibson and dashing George Cooper in the leading roles. Will wonders never cease? There are even two more big films at The Grand today, and they are "peaches" for laughs. One is "Percy, the Lady Killer" and the other "Romeo and Juliet." Be sure to ha, ha at them.

At The Bijou Today.

Today the popular photoplay house presents with pleasurably pride, a mammoth three-reel Powers feature production, "The Mystery of Wickham Hall." This is a stupendous production staged in England, the story opening there two hundred years ago. It's a story of the old English aristocracy, and is one of the most deeply interesting and thrilling mystery stories ever written. It is produced by an all-star cast of Powers players, and comes to The Bijou right from the metropolitan centers. It has created a sensation there, and has been packing 'em at ten to twenty cents a throw. It's a story full of thrills and startling realistic and there is not a dull moment throughout its entire length of three reels.

As another big offering for today, there will be presented a brand new Keystone comedy feature, "Caught in the Rain," featuring Miss Mabel Normand in one of her ridiculously funny roles. It will be found the most spontaneous gloom chaser ever flashed on any screen, and you'll laugh about it all next day.

For next week The Bijou announces the biggest programme ever presented in Wilmington, consisting of four, five and six-reel programmes for every day in the week, nothing less than four reels any day, and the majority being five-reel days. Watch for the big ad in Sunday's paper.

CITY LEAGUERS AGAIN ON THE JOB TODAY.

Will Pull Off Regularly Scheduled Double Header at Sunset Park.

After two weeks of rest, Sunset Park will again see the City Leaguers in action this afternoon in a regularly scheduled double header bill.

At 3 o'clock the Y. M. C. A. will go after the Brigadiers' scalp, and fans who have seen these two teams in action know very well what to expect. The Brigade boys have yet to win their first game from the Association, but each game played has shown that they are getting faster all the time, and have approached very near unto victory in the last three games. The climax was reached when these two teams met some weeks ago, the score being a tie, and the game this afternoon promises to be a thriller.

The Y. M. C. A. boys have made up their minds to win and to this end have added three players who, the manager says, look good. Emerson, the B.B. manager, says nothing, but you can look for him to make his presence known.

The second game will no doubt be another hot contest. The W. L. I. are at present somewhat crippled, being minus their star pitcher and third baseman, as well as Boswell, another star performer. Being thus handicapped, they will have to put up a stiff fight to win from the Giants, as it is currently reported that they will inject a dark horse for mound duty this afternoon. Adults are charged 25 cents, children 10 cents, and ladies are free.

Others are expected to follow.

LITTLE GIRL OF HARNETT COUNTY MISSING ALL WEEK

Twelve-Year-Old Child Disappears With Singing School Teacher.

Sanford, N. C., July 10.—Mr. W. H. W. Holder, from Harnett county, was in town yesterday, and with him Attorney Charles Ross, from Lillington. Mr. Holder is wild with unpeasiness and anxiety over the mysterious disappearance of his 12-year-old daughter from his home in Harnett county last Sunday. The little girl left home with I. N. Petty, a widower of 60 years who has been making it a business of teaching singing schools through this section for a number of years. He secured the confidence of the child's parents and seems to have had a well-laid plan of escape, with her. He took her to a church Sunday, four or five miles from her home, to attend a singing class. Late Sunday evening Petty was seen with the girl in his buggy, but no information can be gathered as to where they stopped for the night.

Mr. Ross is directing plans for his arrest and the return of the girl to the distressed parents. All inquiries having failed to locate the child up to this hour, Mr. Holder is greatly grieved and cannot anticipate what may be her fate.

FULTON'S ERROR ROBS MELLINGER OF GLORY.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., July 10.—An error by First Baseman Fulton today robbed "Lefty" Mellinger, pitcher of the local Central Association team, of the glary of equalling "Cy" Young's record of a perfectly pitched game.

Pitching against Burlington, Mellinger allowed no hits and no runs; gave not a single base on balls; hit no batsman; and was faced by only 27 batters. The batter spared by Fulton' error was put out when the next man hit into a double play.

GOVERNOR CRAIG GOES TO "INSPECT" TROOPS

Mountains Around Asheville Full of Tourists

Mississippi Health Officer Makes Survey of Work of North Carolina Board of Health—Tobacco Sales for June.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 10.—Leaf tobacco sales on the North Carolina markets during June aggregated only 171,898 pounds. However, this small aggregate of sales exceeded the sales for June, 1913, by 79,117 pounds, there having been only 92,781 pounds sold during June of last year. This June there were only three of the North Carolina markets reporting any sales. These were Durham, 160,678 pounds; Winston-Salem, 5,454 pounds, and Reidsville, 5,766 pounds.

Governor Craig spent a few hours in the executive office here today on his way from Asheville to Morehead City, where, as he laughingly expressed it, possessing special military ability and skill, he will inspect the North Carolina troops in annual encampment there.

The Governor says that the mountains around Asheville are full of visitors from all parts of the world, the resort season developing very satisfactorily. He says the Students' Military Camp at Asheville is making a record this season that shows the institution to be thoroughly established and Nation-wide in the scope of its influence, there being members there from all parts of the country. He is much pleased with the success of the camp and the work it is accomplishing.

The Governor took part in a meeting of the Council of State while here for the purpose of getting some "kinks" out of the adjustment of finances for the maintenance of some of the special work of the State laboratory of hygiene in construing for the satisfaction of the State Treasurer some special statutory provisions regulating the finances. The adjustment was made.

Studying Our Health Work.

Dr. W. S. Leathers, director of the Mississippi State health department, is spending a couple of days here making something of a survey of the North Carolina State Board of Health work, Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, giving him every possible attention in his investigation. Dr. Leathers says the health work in Mississippi is much more strenuous than in this State, there being a great many more prosecutions for violation of health laws than in this State. Indeed, they average down there 1,000 or more prosecutions a year and numerous and frequent "sensations" such as that stirred in this State through the prosecution in the public prints of the Morehead City authorities for lax sanitary conditions.

Dr. Rankin, secretary of the North Carolina Board of Health, expects to spend some time in Mississippi soon looking especially into the Mississippi laws as to compulsory screening and municipal inspections.

Good Roads Convention.

Acting President W. A. Withers, of the Raleigh chamber of commerce, appointed a delegation of 30 well known citizens of Raleigh to attend the North Carolina Good Roads convention in session in Durham this week. There is the keenest interest in the convention.

SIX DUPLIN PRISONERS ARE STILL AT LARGE.

No Trace Found of Jail Breakers—Death at Warsaw.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., July 10.—Although nearly a week has passed, and the officers have made diligent search, no trace of the six negro prisoners, who escaped from the Duplin county jail on last Saturday night has been obtained. These prisoners, who had been placed in jail awaiting trial at the next term of court, in some unknown manner obtained two files, and sawed through the iron grating of their cell, and securing an iron bar some where about the jail, broke out a hole in the side of the building, using their bed clothes for a rope, thus made their way to liberty, leaving behind a crippled companion, who was unable to accompany them owing to his condition.

James L. Carroll died here yesterday with heart trouble at the age of 72. He was buried today in the family burying ground about ten miles from here. He is survived by his wife and three children.

JACKSONVILLE GETTING READY FOR TEACHERS.

Onslow County Institute to Be Held Two Weeks Beginning August 24.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., July 10.—The citizens of the progressive little town of Jacksonville, over in Onslow county, are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the hundred or more school teachers who will attend the institute to be held there on August 24. Two years ago Jacksonville played the part of host to a large number of the instructors and every one who was present at that time thoroughly enjoyed the visit there and stated that if ever again the opportunity was offered, they would return and a large concourse is expected to be present when the next institute is held.

The meetings will be held in the large auditorium of the high school and these will continue for a period of two weeks.

ACCIDENT AT GRIMESLAND.

Man Caught in Machinery, Has Leg Crushed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., July 10. — At Grimesland, Mr. Thad Hodges, a young man, came near losing his life but escaped with very serious injuries that will take much time for recovery. He was trying to adjust or fix some part of the machinery of the Pamlico Brick & Tile Company's plant when his clothing got caught in the machinery. His leg was badly mangled, simply crushed, from the knee to the ankle and he is at the hospital in Washington, where it is feared that amputation will or already has become necessary.

CHARGE IS DISCLOSURE OF MILITARY SECRETS

Magazine Article Leads to Arrest of Four Persons

Warrants Issued for Editor of "Sunset," An Aviator, a Writer and Photographer, by U. S. Attorney at 'Frisco.

San Francisco, July 10.—Warrants for the arrest of Charles W. Field, editor of the Sunset Magazine; Robert J. Fowler, an aviator; Riley A. Scott, a writer, and Ray S. Duhem, a photographer, were issued today at the request of John W. Preston, United States attorney here. The charge against all four is the disclosure of military secrets. The penalty is ten years' imprisonment or a $10,000 fine for such disclosure if made abroad and one year or a $6,000 fine if made in the United States.

In April Sunset published an article entitled, "Can the Panama Canal Be Destroyed From the Air?"

Reproductions of photographs taken from an aeroplane and showing some of the fortifications of the canal zone and of the San Francisco presidio accompanied the text. As soon as a copy of the number was called to the attention of the War Department it requested Preston to investigate.

Mr. Fields' defense today was that the photograph showed no actual fortifications only preliminary work for a fort. To this Mr. Preston replied:

"By the act of March 3, 1911, Congress made it a violation of a plain statute for a civilian to take or publish photograprs of any fortifications whether complete or in process of construction."

MUST BE VACCINATED.

Else Can Not Enter Rocky Mount Graded Schools.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 10.—Every child entering the Rocky Mount graded schools, at the beginning of the coming session, must show satisfactory evidence of vaccination, according to a statement just issued by Superintendent R. M. Wilson. This ruling is made in order to insure, so far as possible, a healthful condition of those children who are enrolled in the schools.

Superintendent Wilson urges that those parents whose children have not been vaccinated to have this matter attended to without delay, so that the child will not be delayed in entering his classes on this account.

STATE RESTS ITS CASE SOUTHERN HAS INNING

Railway Officers Fight Justice Rates

Would Mean Disaster to the System, They Declare—Hillman and Fulgham Testify at Asheville Hearing

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 10.—The action of the State in resting its case and the introduction as evidence of statements from officials of the Southern Railway, in which efforts are made to show that the placing of the rates of the Justice bill into effect will mean disaster to the system were features of today's sessions of the North Carolina Freight Rate Commission.

Rate Expert C. H. Hillman was recalled to the stand for a few minutes in the morning and J. E. Fulgham, of the Western Carolina Lumber & Timber Association, was the last witness to be called by the State. Mr. Fulgham's testimony related chiefly to the rates now in force on lumber shipments, his evidence being to the effect that the rates are higher than those in effect in other States and Western North Carolina lumbermen are forced to pay discriminatory tariffs in making their intra-State shipments.

The statements of Comptroller Plant and Freight Traffic Manager Green, of the Southern, were voluminous and a great deal of time was required to read them into the records. They were replies to the testimony of State's witnesses introduced at Raleigh several weeks ago, the two officers presenting figures and statistics in an effort to show that the rates provided for in the Justice bill are entirely too low, and will work a great hardship on the Southern.

L. M. Jones, traffic manager of the Norfolk Southern, was examined at length, his testimony being along the lines of that introduced by the officials of the Southern. Auditor of Revenue Duke, of the Southern, was another witness for the railway whose testimony was long drawn out. He presented figures to show that the rates proposed by the State are too low.

WAR CORRESPONDENT'S CREDENTIALS REVOKED.

Charged With Sending Out Sensational and Untrue Dispatches.

Washington, July 10.—Secretary Garrison has enforced, for the first time, the new army regulations governing war correspondents in the case of Fred Boalt, an American writer with Funston's brigade at Vera Cruz. He was charged with sending out sensational and untrue dispatches.

Secretary Garrison has revoked his credentials as a correspondent with the army and ordered his deportation to the United States. As the dispatches in question also involved the navy, Secretary Garrison has stayed the execution of his order while Secretary Daniels has opportunity for investigation.

At the War Department it was said the official record shows Boalt to be accredited to the Cleveland (O.) Press.

TROUBLE EXPECTED WHEN ANARCHISTS GATHER AT FUNERAL OF BOMB VICTIMS

LEONARD ABBOTT and ALEXANDER BERKMAN ©1914 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

New York, July 10.—Police officials are prepared for trouble when the public funeral of the three victims of the bomb explosion in the Lexington avenue tenement is held on Saturday, July 11. Alexander Berkman, the anarchist leader an I. W. W. agitator, has arranged for a mass meeting in Union square on that occasion, and it is feared that heads will be broken again if the meeting becomes violent. Leonard Abbott, president of the Free Speech Society of America, is backing Berkman. Mr. Abbott is wealthy and is considered sincere in his ideals for the revolution of society.

SUFFRAGIST SPRINGS ON TO ROYAL AUTOMOBILE.

Heroic Measures by Police Save Her From Lynching by Mob.

Perth, Scotland, July 10.—A militant suffragist, uttering an exultant yell, sprang on to the foot board of an automobile in which King George and Queen Mary were driving through the streets of Perth today. The woman, who was identified as Rhoda Fleming, from Glasgow, seized the handle of the door of the royal automobile before the paralyzed police could act.

Two policemen then seized her and it required a score of mounted soldiers to hold at bay the angry mob bent on lynching her. Miss Fleming turned out to be armed only with a petition against the forcible feeding of imprisoned suffragists. A large force of troops was requisitioned to protect her from the populace as she was conveyed to the police station.

Earlier in the day in Dundee another suffragist pitched a bundle of papers into the motor car in which the King and Queen were riding.

GOLD HILL MINE PROBE PRACTICALLY COMPLETED.

Walter G. Newman and John Skelton Williams Again Testify.

Washington, July 10.—Committee investigation into use of Senate stationery in promotion of a mine at Gold Hill, N. C., practically was completed today. George Walter Newman, promoter of the mine, and John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, again were before the committee, amplifying points in their previous test.

Newman repeated his denial that he ever had given away stock in the enterprise or sold it to friends at a lower price than it cost him. He said, however, he did agree to buy 6,500 shares for Representative Flood, of Virginia, at a given figure and later was able to secure for him at a lower price because of a drop in the market.

Mr. Williams reiterated his previous testimony that he had taken no active part in the promotion of the mine.

Washington, July 10.—The Senate committee on Military Affairs today approved the House joint resolution directing return to the State of Louisiana of that commonwealth's original ordinance of secession, which was captured at Richmond and has since been in possession of the War Department.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

If we lived in Newbern we would spell it New Berne in spite of the Postoffice Department.

When a man insists that something is a crying need, find out whether he is crying for something that he would like to have himself.

All men ought to be for mediation. When a man insists on fighting all his own battles, sooner or later somebody will have to ring in a call for the ambulance.

Everybody has a right to run for the Legislature or for Congress, but we never saw why a sidestepper, a straddler or a hedger should butt in with a notion that he is wanted for a man's job.

Before admirals demand a salute to the flag they should consult the authorities at Washington. Before the authorities at Washington approve an admiral's demand for a salute to the fig, they should consider the consequences. Discretion is a sign of wisdom.

Jack Horne, of the Rocky Mount Telegram, says: "The man who doesn't get knocked is the man who isn't doing anything." Nevertheless "a man who isn't doing anything" gets knocked all right, and as a general thing he knocks around and does more knocking than anybody else. Selah, and also Eulalie.

If any great amount of tobocco is raised in this section of the State this year, it will be a surprise to farmers. With few exceptions planters say it is doing no good, dry weather cutting it down. It is too late to plant again or transplant, so that the yield may be very slim. Should the crop be short all over the country the price would compensate for the loss, but in Eastern Carolina and in other States it is said to be fine, which, if true, will hardly result in higher prices.—Greensboro Record.

A contemporary heads its paragraphic column with "Waterworks." That's no joke. A great many men think water works a great hardship on them. The Hon. Bob Glenn is up in Virginia trying to get that out of the heads of Virginians and trying to persuade them that water works wonders in North Carolina. He speaks glowingly about the water wagon, but in such cities as Norfolk, Petersburg, Richmond and Lynchburg they don't like the water wagon because it can never be used for a joy ride.

Men ought to compromise on giving their lady friends more rights and fewer privileges of a "usurpious" character. Some writer has said that "women should have everything they want," but that's no argument at all. They may want diamonds on a glass bead income, and, of course, they should not want more than they can get. However, nine-tenths of them should get more than they want. Women are only the Adamic sisters of men and they should be treated with every consideration, also with ice cream and defferentials of various kinds. We know men who have a large income, but they don't have very much outgo, so's their wives would notice it enough to bray about it.

A Republican paper says everything has gone wrong on account of Wilson's new banking law—the Federal reserve bank act. That shows how much a Republican editor doesn't know. The reserve bank act has never gone into effect and, therefore, no one can know the result till it is tried. Those who stop business because they are afraid it won't do are like a horse which won't cross a bridge for fear a plank is loose. People who stand still because they think a ghost will get them if they go on, disturb business. It is they and not the law, if there is any trouble with legitimate business beyond the natural causes, such as poor crop prospects, disasters, unwise investments and poor business capacity.

A DOG LAW WITH TEETH.

If North Carolina is not going to have a dog law, what protection will the poor dogs have? If the poor "critters" are allowed to go at large scaring people, biting folks, sucking eggs and killing sheep, the people will take the law in their own hands and "old Towzer," "Bing," "Tray," "Sweetheart," "Snow Ball," "Baby Mine," "Fraud Empie," and the balance of the dogs will have to be shot by people who don't know how dear they are to their owners.

Being a mere newspaper man, we are often "caught out" late at night. We meet dogs and cats who are out seeing the town. We meet a dog and he wags his tail as if to say "Hello, Pal," or "Hello, Bill," just as if he were an Elk in good standing. We return the salutation with a pat on the "faithful tyke's" head. Away at midnight we have been companionable with "Fraud Empie" and "Lounger" and our relations have always been cordial. We understand each other, and have never had any disagreements or midnight difficulties.

However, there are people who "hate a dog" and imagine that they are going to be bit. They are afraid to pass a dog on the street or road and they throw a chunk or a rock at him. He takes it as a challenge and bristles up, or considers the source and probably regarding the person, as a belated mollycoddle, goes off mindful of the right of pedestrians and people who are afraid to pass a dog for fear he is going to jump on them and give them hydrophobia.

Many a well intentioned dog gets a kick in the slats, gets shot as a prowler, or gets in bad for sucking eggs or killing sheep, as some dogs do without knowing or caring what they do, whereas a real dog law would be a safeguard for respectable dogs and regard people's rights to go where they please without being afraid of being molested by dogs, or it will protect hens' nests or sheep. People who own dogs ought to favor a dog law for the same reason that we do. If they do not want people to become disgusted and shoot all dogs they see straying around they had better come right out for a dog law and save trouble.

A Legislature which is afraid to pass a dog law is a mossback, nothing, reactionary, primitive aid reprehensible. A Legislature which is afraid of its shadow is not a credit to any party under the sun. When a Legislature wobbles around and straddles on any question it makes people tired.

The real friends of worthwhile dogs ought to be in favor of a dog law with teeth, and a legislator who is afraid to tackle any dog law is surely what "the little boy shot at."

The people ought to know that when a man straddles on the dog problem he is not worth a doggone. The clarion call of the day is for men with nerve. The sidestepper, the straddler, the dodger, and man who sees ghosts along his political path ought not to be in it for a minute. He is the limit.

By this time the people ought to be tired of milk and water masculines and milk-sop statesmen. We are for the man who hangs his banner on the outer wall, and stands right up like Patrick Henry—"sink or swim, survive or perish." We have always stood pat on Patrick Henry, but when it comes to standing at Armageddon, please excuse us.

THE SOUTH'S INDEPENDENCE OF THE WEST.

President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway, wrote to the Charlotte Observer of the 9th instant to commend an editorial in The Star with reference to the rate on corn from the West, and concerning the two steamship cargoes of Argentine corn bound for Southport. The Star urged that North Carolina, with her fertile lands and ideal corn growing adaptabilities, should grow her own corn and be independent of Western and foreign grown corn.

North Carolina shipping points have filed complaint against what they allege is unreasonable freight rates on corn shipped into the State from the corn growing region of the West. We took the ground that by producing her own corn, North Carolina would not have to complain against rates on corn into the State, but would be concerned in a rate on corn being shipped from the State. President Harrison agrees to that proposition, and it is a pleasure to reproduce here what he wrote The Observer over his own signature. It is as follows:

"I note this morning on your always interesting editorial page a clipping from the Wilmington Star urging the people of North Carolina to raise enough corn to supply her own needs, and make unnecessary the importation of corn into the State by railroads.

"The Southern Railway Company is in hearty accord with this suggestion and has urged it again and again; more than this, our Department of Farm improvement Work is actively and constantly co-operating with the farmers of North Carolina to increase, by improved cultural methods, the yield of corn to that end. Our purpose is not to reduce our freight revenues, but to increase them as we believe must be the result of establishing North Carolina on a self-supporting basis as far as food supply is concerned. The moneys now sent out of the State to buy food can be better employed at home in stimulating and enlarging the prosperity of the State and it is in that prosperity that the railroads can best find their hope of the revenues which they need to improve their plants in accordance with public expectation.

"The industrial growth of North Carolina in recent years has not only increased the demand for farm-grown food within the State, but is going to increase it enormously in the future. The opportunity for the North Carolina farmer has only just begun, and there is, I am glad to say, every evidence that he is meeting it. One of the most interesting phases of this opportunity is the production of bacon and pork. North Carolina is a large consumer and importer of these commodities and her climate and soil offer unsurpassed possibilities for the production not only of corn but of the forage crops upon which hogs can be raised with the greatest economy. If more North Carolina farmers would specialize in hogs, they would find a rich reward."

President Harrison, as the head of one of the South's greatest and most enterprising railway systems, is energetically carrying out a policy right along the line which The Star has emphasized time and again. What he writes in his communication speaks for itself. The transportation of corn into North Carolina is no object to his line, but he plainly intimates that corn production in North Carolina and a rate on corn for shipment out of the State is not only an object with his line but that it is a policy which the Southern Railway is actively at work to put into practical effect along all its lines.

The Southern is spending thousands of dollars to stop corn shipments from coming into its territory. Its wise management sees more for the country and more for the railroad in home production than it does in any possible profit the transportation department may get on corn shipments into the State.

We have often referred to the Southern Railway's progressive undertakings for the development of its territory. The management's propaganda along that line is thorough and active, and we are sure it will be effective. The Southern pursues a well directed publicity method, and it not only has expert demonstrators at work, but sends its object lesson trains all over its territory to introduce scientific farming methods, dairying and cattle raising, and to demonstrate good roads building, etc.

Diversified agriculture is the one supreme constructive aim of President Harrison and his line, and in it he sees Southern independence so far as corn and meat production goes, with consequent assurance of prosperity for the Southern and all its territory.

This constructive work is vital to the South, and its seriousness is emphasized in the active work which the Southern and other railways are doing on an impressive and expensive scale.

FROM UP A TREE LOOKING ON.

Municipal enterprises succeed to the extent that experts are secured by municipalities to conduct them. Judging from the kinds of government most cities have, municipal enterprises would make a poor showing if they depended on the efficiency of the average city government. Municipal enterprises succeed just in the proportion that municipal government succeeds, but that is not the fault of municipal enterprises. It is the fault of men who can't conduct any kind of enterprise any better than they can conduct a two-by-four city government.

When any city wants to go into the municipal enterprise business and make a success of it, the first thing to do is to get itself a municipal government which knows how to run itself and come out even at the end of the year. Efficient men in charge of a city's government can give a city an efficient and successful government. They can also make municipal enterprises a success, provided they get the right sort of men to run them for the public while the officials themselves are running their own business—often running it in the ground. All municipal enterprises are beautiful—on paper. They run like clock work, if they have in charge of them somebody who knows the clock business.

The newspapers and people in a great many cities are discussing the advisability of municipal enterprises. "Advisability" in that connection is good. In order to find out whether it is "advisable" or not, note the ability of those who are running any city and judge whether they should be trusted to run some big enterprise for you. Then if they are all right, the next thing to be sure about is that their successors can run a city government and its enterprises as efficiently and successfully as they.

If a municipality is running itself right, it might run various enterprises according to Hoyle. However, the safe way is to be from Missouri till men of experience and ability can show that they can run a city government or any old thing which calls for efficient management.

All of this is to say that so far as municipal enterprises go "it all depends." It depends on who is doing a city's business for it and on the kind of men whom they are to place in charge of public utilities. No city wants a municipal enterprise that is a faluire. In order to become enthusiastic over municipal enterprises get good city governments one right after another so the public business can be conducted with efficiency and success.

In spite of what Huerta and Blease may do, they have their friends on election day.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The improvement in the condition of cotton in this section in the past ten days is little less than remarkable. There is now plenty of rain, and in all of this part of the State the drought has been fully broken, to the great joy of the farmers.—Raleigh Times.

Mr. Frank Thompson, of Onslow county, nominated by the Democrats for the State Senate, has declined the nomination. One reason for the declination, it is said, is that Mr. Thompson's law practice is so large he can't afford to neglect it, and it mentioned that he is counsel in Onslow county for the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company and also represents several large lumber firms. Seeing that he is counsel for corporations, and especially for public service corporations which might be affected by legislation, Mr. Thompson has done right in declining the nomination for the Senate unless he intended to sever his connection with the corporations he represents. We don't know that he declined for that reason, but if he did he has done himself credit and has shown infinitely more regard for the proprieties than the people who nominated him.—Statesville Landmark.

The Raleigh News and Observer finds no better employment for the time at its disposal than in an effort to get up a discussion as to the proper way in which to spell the name of the town of Newbern. Capt. Samuel A. Ashe, the late Theodore B. Kingsbury and others of the scholarly editors of past days, chased this subject up and down and all around the State in newspaper discussions of powerful interest, and they brought out all the facts it is possible to secure on the controversy. Yet they could not settle it and it is not likely ever to be settled—at least to general satisfaction. The Observer has never changed its style of spelling the name of the place—which is Newbern. The fact of the origination of the name from a Switzerland canton or town is ancient history, and Dr. Kingsbury always insisted that the Switzerland style of New Berne should prevail. There has been a disposition, however, to favor the Americanization of the name, and this paper has found that form acceptable. There are at least four ways of spelling it, and while this remains the case, the more purely American of the forms suits us best.—Charlotte Observer.

DR. E. A. MOY DEAD.

Succumbs After Several Years' Battle for Life

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., July 10.—Dr. Elbert Alfred Moye died at his home on Evans street early Wednesday night. Dr. Moye suffered an apoplectic attack some years ago, followed by paralysis, his condition never becoming much better. He was sitting up in bed when the fatal attack came and fell backward and was dead without a struggle.

Dr. Moye was a son of the late Elbert A. Moye (who died a few months ago), and was born near Farmville July 7, 1869, being 45 years and a day old. He was a graduate of the University of North Carolina and of the Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia, and spent one year as resident physician of the college hospital. He then came to Greenville and engaged in the practice of his profession, and later became associated with Dr. Laughinghouse. His health becoming impaired he retired from active work and since has been practically confined to his home, though he could get about some, and at times pay some attention to business.

Dr. Moye was a progressive and public-spirited man and active in promoting the welfare and business interests of his town. He was one of the organizers of the Greenville Banking & Trust Company, the National Bank, the Pitt Lumber & Manufacturing Company and also one of the reorganizers of the John Flanagan Buggy Company. In all of these he took more than ordinary interest and was a potent factor in successfully financing them. He was also interested in farming and other enterprises, a man of sound judgment and discretion, exerting much influence in all business with which he was connected. He was a fine physician, recognized as such by his profession, and had a large practice when ill health compelled him to retire. He was a man of worth, highly esteemed and popular with all.

In 1877 he married Hortense, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Forbes. He is survived by his widow and three children, E. A., Jr., about 14 years old, and a girl and a boy younger.

MR. SALLEEBY HERE.

Well Known Baraca Worker to Speak at First Baptist Church.

Mr. A. B. Saleeby, of Salisbury, N. C., one of the most prominent Baraca Class workers in the United States, will deliver an address at the First Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 4:45 o'clock on the subject of how to get men and how to hold them in Baraca Class work.

Mr. Saleeby is a well known Assyrian merchant of Salisbury, and at present he holds the banner for being the greatest Baraca Class organizer in the United States. It was largely through his interest in the Baraca movement that he became identified with the Christian church, and since that time he has done a wonderful work in furthering the influence of the well known Sunday school organization. It is largely through his efforts that North Carolina today holds second place in the Union as a Baraca Class State.

All the members of the Baraca and Philathea classes of the city are especially urged to be present at the church tomorrow afternoon and hear Mr. Saleeby, and a most cordial invitation is also extended the public generally.

Mr. Saleeby is one of a party of seven officers and members of the Salisbury Industrial Club spending a week at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, as guests of the club, having been given the trip as a reward to the winning team in membership contest recently conducted.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

GEORGE J. RAMSEY, M. A., LL. D., President. Raleigh, N. C.

WILMINGTON TO HAVE A MODERN ABATTOIR

To be Erected by J. J. Hopkins, Son & Co., Inc.

Quarantine Pen Privileges Will be Granted by Government— Health Department Worked for Such a Plant.

Recognizing the local need for such an enterprise, which has been stressed by the health department here for the past several years, J. J. Hopkins, Son & Company, Inc., are planning to erect on their property on the north bank of Smith's Creek, outside of the city limits, a modern abattoir and rendering plant for the slaughtering of cattle here, and to operate in connection with a quarantine pen, permission for which has been granted by the United States government, following a visit to the city yesterday by Dr. Owen, of the Federal Department of Agriculture, and Dr. B. B. Flowe, State veternarian.

Mr. Greene Fenley, president and general manager of the company, will leave next week for Augusta and a number of other cities, where he will inspect modern abattoirs and rendering plants, and gather the necessary data and information as to what is wanted here. Work upon the local plant will be started immediately after his return. The whole plant, including the quarantine pen, will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000.

The local health department has been interested in securing a plant of this kind and has tried during the past several years to interest a number of parties in its construction, and the health authorities are delighted that at last their desires are to be realized.

The health advantages of such a plant as is proposed lie in its provision for modern sanitary privileges for butchering, dressing and storing meats, together with facilities for rendering refuse and offal, thus utilizing the animal waste of the community.

Under present conditions animals are slaughtered in the surrounding country and shipped into Wilmington by boat or express, and there is no control over the physical condition of animals previous to their being slaughtered. These animals slaughtered in the country are frequently handled in an unsanitary manner, both in slaughtering and in shipping the carcasses. It has been necessary in the past to condemn a large number of carcasses and destroy them because of the above reason.

Such an abattoir as is contemplated will enable the health department to require all local slaughtering to be done in a sanitary manner and will give the meat and milk inspector an opportunity to inspect each animal before it is killed for the purpose of discovering if it is suffering from any disease that might not display itself in the slaughtered carcass.

New Hanover is a tick-free county, while all the surrounding counties are at least partly tick infested; therefore, it will be necessary to establish here a quarantine pen, so that cattle from a tick-infested district in the surrounding counties and neighboring States may be brought here for food purposes.

The privilege of establishing such a quarantine pen must be obtained from the Federal government, through the State Department of Agriculture. Dr. Owen, who represents the Federal Department of Agriculture in this district, with headquarters at Norfolk, and Dr. B. B. Flowe, the State veterinarian, with headquarters in Raleigh, came to Wilmington yesterday and made a thorough examination of the local situation and the site of the proposed abattoir and quarantine pen. Both of these gentlemen were thoroughly satisfied with the local conditions and projectors of the proposed enterprise were assured by them that their request for quarantine privileges would be granted, and that they could proceed with their plans.

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

Dr. N. A. Culbreth Charged With Disorderly Conduct—Continued

Dr. N. A. Culbreth, a well known dentist of this city, was before the Recorder yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. In the absence of Recorder Furlong the session was presided over by Deputy Recorder Harriss. At the request of the defendant the case was continued until Monday morning.

Joe Wilson, colored, was charged with vagrancy but as the evidence against him was slim the case was dismissed.

Prayer for judgment was continued in a case against Walter Hurst, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law. He was required to give bond for his good behavior and to pay the costs.

ARREST CONDUCTOR ALLEN

Negro Alleges That He and Tidewater Employe Did Thriving Whiskey Business.

Ed Allen, a trusted employe of the Tidewater Power Company, was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon on a charge of violating the prohibition law, preferred by Walter Hurst, a negro, who was convicted upon his own confession in Recorder's court yesterday morning of selling whiskey. Prayer for judgment was continued for two years in the case against the negro upon his paying the costs.

The warrant against Allen was sworn out before Justice Harriss by Special Officer H. Mack Godwin on Thursday afternoon. It was reported that Allen had left the city, but this proved to be a mistake. He gave bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance before Justice Harriss this morning at 10 o'clock.

For some time those interested in the enforcement of the prohibition law, it is stated, have been mystified by the aparent ease with which negroes on the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Company and on the sound have been able to get whiskey. Several schemes were devised by the officers to catch the guilty persons, but with no success.

This week it was suggested by Justice Harriss that it would be a good scheme to check up all the shipments by express to that section with the records of the Tidewater Power Co. All express shipments along the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Company are transferred from the express office and delivered at the various stations along the line.

After having gotten the list of names, the energetic officers looked up some of the consignees and found that they stated that they have never received the whiskey in question. Suspicion fell upon Walter Hurst, colored, who was arrested Wednesday night by Constable Davis and placed in the county jail. Hurst stoutly denied knowing anything about it but on Thursday when confronted with the testimony of the persons to whose addresses whiskey had been shipped, he confessed that he had been selling whiskey all along the line, particularly at Wrightsville and Macomber's station. However, he said that he did it at the instance of Allen, who was in charge of the baggage car on which the negro worked, and declared that he and Allen divided up the profits from the sale.

He explained that their method was to have whiskey shipped either in their own names or in the name of some person living along the line. When the whiskey came, the negro said, they would sign up for it, pay the freight on the company's line, and then deliver it to the thirsty ones. According to his statement they did a thriving business.

The negro when arraigned before Deputy Recorder Harriss yesterday morning told substantially the same story that he is said to have told previously and because it appeared from his testimony that he had been used by another to violate the law, the court decided to let him off with the payment of the costs conditioned upon his being of good behavior for two years. The negro employed W. P. Gafford, Esq., as his attorney.

Conducior Allen whom the negro alleges has been engaged in the illegal sale of whiskey has been with the Tidewater Power Company for a number of years and is regarded as a most worthy man.

It was stated yesterday that a second charge might be brought under the Federal statute, which makes it unlawful for an employe of a transportation company to deliver whiskey in packages addressed to fictitious names. The penalty is a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Conductor Allen was arrested at the Masonic Temple by Constable Davis yesterday afternoon. He arranged to give bond with Mr. B. A. Merritt as surety. He employed Marsden Bellamy, Esq. He is said to have admitted that he was connected with the alleged sale of whiskey and that he was sorry that he did wrong.

COUNCIL MEETS AT NOON

Will Consider Question of Mr. Holton's Suspension—Contract for Engine and Pump.

With several members of council apparently satisfied that Mr. Jas. E. Holton, superintendent of the city scavenging work, who was suspended Thursday morning by Mayor P. Q. Moore on the grounds of insubordination, has made sufficient explanation of his action in publishing a communication which was taken by the mayor and possibly other officials to mean a wholesale indictment of the characters of some of the city officers, and with Mayor Moore apparently of the opinion that the explanation is not satisfactory, City Council will meet today at noon to consider the question of making his suspension permanent or reinstating him.

It was generally supposed that the matter would be taken up at a conference held yesterday afternoon, when council met to let the contract for a new engine and pump for the city fire boat, the Atlantic. It was informally decided to let the contract to the American LaFrance Fire Company Inc., of Elmira, N. Y. The apparatus is to cost $5,750, and the cost of installation will probably be about $500 additional. The terms in the contract decided upon are $3,000 cash and the balance in one and two years. The contract will be acted on officially at the meeting today.

Following consideration of the fire engine and pump contract, council took up the question of Mr. Holton's suspension, and after some discussion it was decided to leave it over until today.

The general impression prevailing on the streets yesterday was that a majority of the councilmen would vote for the reinstatement of Mr. Holton, on the grounds that his explanations in a letter to Councilman Merritt, already published, would justify the body in taking this action. However, it was equally public gossip that Mayor P. Q. Moore was not satisfied with Mr. Holton's explanation in his letter to Mr. Merritt, and that he does not consider that Mr. Holton has made any retraction of the charges in his communication of Wednesday afternoon, in which he declared: "I, for one, know that if the lights are turned on all persons holding office in this city, there will be some very bright lights shown that would prefer being under a peck measure, and Mr. Jones would not be one of them."

CHARTER FOR RAILROAD TO FORT FISHER BEACH.

Kure Company Proposes Line to Development on the Coast.

As will be seen in the telegraphic dispatches elsewhere in today's issue, a charter was granted yesterday to the Wilmington & Fort Fisher Railroad & Power Company, granting to the company the privilege of constructing and operating a railroad from Wilmington to Fort Fisher Sea Beach. The authorized capital stock is $125,000, with the sum of $18,000 subscribed by the members of the Kure family, who are developing Fort Fisher Beach.

The above project, it is understood, is in no way connected with the project to build and operate an electric trolley line to Carolina and Wilmington beaches, lying in the same section of the county.

Officers of the Kure Land & Development Company declined to discuss the road project yesterday, other than to state that they would be in position to make some public announcement a little later.

The distance from Wilmington to Fort Fisher Sea Beach is 18 miles, and the projected road is to connect the city with the resort now being developed there. It is understood that the company expects to have the road completed by next February.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY

Special Session Yesterday—New Church for Currie—Minister is Licensed.

At a called meeting of Wilmington Presbytery, held in the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, a commission was appointed to organize a Presbyterian church at Currie, N. C.; Rev. Geo. M. Mathis was received into the membership of the Presbytery and Mr. A. S. Maxwell was examined, and, at a service held in the church last evening, licensed to preach the gospel in this Presbytery.

The morning meeting was presided over by Rev. Andrew J. Howell as moderator, while Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure presided at the service last evening. Rev. W. M. Shaw acted as clerk at the meetings.

A petition was received at the morning meeting, containing the names of 21 persons, asking for the organization of a church at Currie. The petition was acted upon favorably, and Presbytery appointed as a commission to organize the church there August 8th the following: Rev. Dr. John M. Wells, Rev. P. L. Clark and Rev. J. S. Crowley, and Ruling Elder Geo. J. Moore, of Caswell church, with Rev. W. M. Shaw and Ruling Elder J. N. Corbett as alternates. In all probability several more than signed the petition will affiliate themselves with the church to be organized at Currie and it will start off with very bright prospects.

Rev. Geo. M. Mathis was received from the Presbytery of Paris, Texas. He is now supplying the Presbyterian church at Warsaw, and has done excellent work there already.

Mr. A. S. Maxwell, of Hebron church, a candidate for the ministry under the care of the Presbytery, and now having charge of the churches in Brunswick county, was examined in all the matters required by the book of church order, and at the service held last evening, preached a trial sermon. He made an excellent showing throughout and at the close of his sermon last evening, was licensed to preach the gospel within the bounds of Wilmington Presbytery.

OPEN BIDS FOR STEEL.

Fifteen Hundred Tons Will be Used at Brown's Landing.

Maj. H. W. Stickle, United States district engineer, yesterday opened bids for 1,576 tons of steel piling to be used in building cofferdams at Brown's Landing in the Cape Fear river. There were three bids submitted and these will be sent to the War Department at Washington together with the recommendation of Major Stickle for approval. Other things being equal, the contract will be awarded to the lowest bidder. It is estimated that the entire cost will be not less than $60,000.

Work will begin on the construction of the second dam and lock at Brown's Landing near Elizabethtown at an early date. The first dam and locks at King's Bluff will be completed within the near future. There are being built to secure a depth of eight feet of water to Fayetteville.

SALISBURY BOOSTERS, WINNING TEAM IN MEMBERSHIP CONTEST, GUESTS OF INDUSTRIAL CLUB OF THEIR CITY WHILE AT THE BEACH

Composing "The Reds," the winning team in a membership contest recently conducted by the wide-awake Industrial Club of Salisbury, N. C., seven members of that organization are its guests at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, for a week, having chosen to come to this resort rather than take a trip to Toronto, Canada, offered them by the club.

Those composing this whirlwind bunch of "live wires" are Messrs. H. H. Kitchin, J. M. Pace, R. L. Reams, Henry W. Hobson, A. H. Snider, W. D. Hartmann and A. B. Saleeby. Captain Snider is president of the Salisbury Industrial Club, and Mr. Saleeby is its chief booster, a position that he fills with superb zeal and still has so much surplus steam that he can afford to look after a large and profitable business and at the same time hold the distinction of being the greatest organizer of Baraca classes in the United States.

The party arrived in the city yesterday morning, save Mr. Pace, who came in from Atlanta last night. Yesterday before proceeding to the beach they located the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and paid Secretary Branch a call.

All of them expressed themselves as being delighted with what they had seen of Wilmington, and they declared, when shown the panoramic post card views of the city, that Wilmington is the only "City-like City in the State."

They plan to see more of the city during their week at the beach, and also to make a trip down the Cape Fear to Southport and other points of interest.

BRILLIANT ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY AT ROSE HILL.

Rose Hill, N. C., July 10.—One of the most brilliant and truly delightful social functions the society circles of Rose Hill have ever enjoyed, was the announcement party given by Mrs. Harvey Boney, yesterday, Thursday, afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock in honor of Miss Melva Carr, one of the most charming and popular young ladies of this town, whose coming marriage to Mr. Horace Pearsall, of Wilmington on July 30th, was announced on this occasion, and which announcement was received with teeming good wishes, but not surprise by the large gathering of her young lady friends, invited guests of Mrs. Boney. The home was beautifully adorned and Mrs. Boney proved herself an ideal hostess. The color scheme was red and white, and prevailed not only in the elaborate floral decorations, but also in the refreshments served.

"Progressive Hearts" was the game of the evening, and Miss Hatcher won the prize. This was followed by a hilariously enjoyed guessing contest styled, "What Shall a Man's Wife Wear?" and at the close a delicious salad course was served.

Just before the guests were ready to leave the announcement was made in a most unique manner. Little Miss Emmie Boney passed around a basket containing large red hearts which, as each guest took one from the basket, was found to slit in pieces and when these were re-adjusted, in position, the following legend was revealed: "Melva Carr—Horace Pearsall, July 30th, 1914."

MISS MARY CROOM BRIDE OF MR. JOHN T. THORNE.

Magnolia, N. C., July 10.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Magnolia Wednesday evening when Miss Mary Croom became the bride of Mr. John T. Thorne, of Farmville. The bridal chorus was sweetly sung by nine girls accompanied by Miss Lucy Fussel at the piano. As the wedding march was played Miss Jessie Croom, sister of the bride, with Mr. P. J. Heath, and Miss Lanie Barden with Mr. Forest Croom marched slowly up the aisle, followed by the groom with his best man, Mr. James Darden.

The bride, wearing an attractive blue traveling suit, and carrying brides roses and lilies of the valley, was gracefully accompanied by her sister, Mrs. S. B. Hunter, who gave her away.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and smilax. The bride and groom left on the evening train for a tour of the Northern cities, after which they will be at home in Farmville.

Wrightsville Beach

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pennington and child and Mrs. J. T. Martin, of Tarboro, are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, who is spending his vacation at Wrightsville Beach, has returned from a brief visit to New York.

A popular feature at The Hanover is the outdoor dining room. Tables have been placed on the broad porch next to the Atlantic, a most pleasant location.

On account of the increased attendance at the services of the "Star by the Sea" it has been necessary to enlarge the building. Work on the addition began yesterday.

Mrs. W. R. Kenan, Jr., of Lockport, N. Y., and Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, of New York and Florida, are the guests of Mrs. W. R. Kenan at her cottage on the beach, and will spend several days there.

Thursday's Charlotte News: "Mrs. Julian Jeffries and daughter, Miss Flora Jeffries, will join a party of Rocky Mount friends at Wrightsville next Wednesday. They will stay at the Seashore Hotel."

Mr. W. E. Pennington, the popular chief clerk of the Oceanic Hotel, returned Thursday night from Tarboro, where he was called the first of the week to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Ed. Pennington.

Among the arrivals at the Hanover Inn yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Evans, Atlanta; J. S. Clark, Durant, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Henry, Jackson, Tenn.; C. A. Heath, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Patterson, Chapel Hill.

Coming on a special train of five Pullmans, a large delegation of Georgians and Alabamians arrived in Wilmington yesterday at noon. Practically all of them came directly to the beach. Others came last night and all the hotels and cottages are crowded with guests. The throngs in the hotel halls and on the porches presented an animated scene last nigt.

The famous Pavlowa Gavotte will be presented again by Miss Chandler and Mr. West at their exhibition at Lumina tonight. The first presentation of this dance at Lumina some time ago met with great success and the exhibition tonight will be the feature of the evening.

In the regular weekly shoot of the New Hanover Gun Club on the new course just north of the Oceanic Hotel yesterday afternoon, Mr. J. B. Pennington, of Tarboro, and Mr. L. B. Pearce, of this city, tied for the first place, each having made a score of 95 out of a possible 100. Mr. Pennington broke the target for 75 times straight. There were several others who made good records. These weekly shoots are being held in preparation for the State shoot, which will be held at the beach on the 21st and the 22nd.

"A Dream of the Wild," a mammoth and thrilling Vitagraph drama, heads tonight's bill of movies at the South's most popular pleasure palace, and Lumina visitors will find this one of the most absorbing dramatic productions ever shown in a movie. It is full of thrills, and there is not a dull moment throughout. Another big one is "On the Great Steel Beam," a thrilling and heart touching drama written by Sidney Booth and dramatized by the Edison Feature Players. The comedy end is taken care of in fine style with a full reel Biograph comedy, "The Mystery of the Milk," that as a wholesome gloom chaser leaves nothing to be desired.

Another one-step contest will be the feature at Lumina next Monday night. A handsome sterling silver cup will be the prize given to the winning couple. More interest is manifested by the public in these contests than in any other events that have taken place at Lumina. It is expected that there will be a great many more couples to enter this contest than took part in the first contest. Lack of confidence probably kept many of the dancers out of the first contest, which will disappear now that the public has become accustomed to these competitive dances. The contest Monday night will no doubt attract a large crowd. The contest will be managed by Mr. Don Richardson.

Included in the arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McFadden and L. Schwartz, Sumter, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Walker, Louis Glein, Moses Bear and L. I. Charnaron, Atlanta; E. T. Glover, Georgetown, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Otis, Columbia, S. C.; L. S. Bullard, Machen, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Evans, Chas. C. Thorne, Mrs. Annie Thorne King, Misses Helen and Grace Thorne, Mrs. Lillian Daniel, Mrs. Mary Hodges, Mrs. Floyd Cox, Miss Kate McGee and Geo. E. Horton, and Miss Madge Malone, Atlanta; J. B. Kirkpatrick, Jr., and W. M. Martin, Birmingham, Ala.; Miss Effie Taylor, Mrs. J. B. Cooper, D. S. Brady, Chas. Quarles, Henry C. Taylor, Frank M. Stevens, Ed. Parks, John Jentzen, William Franklin, John McGee, Guy Harper, Atlanta.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were John W. Langwell, Cincinnati, Ohio; F. J. Donovan and J. J. Strahle, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. C. H. Burton, Atlanta; Mrs. Mike Harvey, Auburn, Ala.; E. T. Haynes, L. Z. Rosser, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wood, T. W. Hart, Atlanta; Misses Mary McCuen and Alys Pilling, Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. E. A. Muldren, Florence, S. C.; Morton Sampson and W. S. Brown, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. P. A. Methvin, Mrs. Frank Wilky, Mrs. T. A. Berry, Misses Winnie, Allene and Julia Perry, Mrs. T. M. Brady, Miss Bessie Brady, Miss C. H. Chisholm and Mrs. M. H. Chisholm, Atlanta; R. C. Gresham, Spartanburg, S. C.; D. A. Cooper, Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frazier, Eugene Kelly, Henry Groves, R. P. King, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. R. Bardwell, Mrs. H. L. Johnston, Mrs. Fred Johnston and Miss Hattie Patterson, Atlanta.

NEGRO USED SUIT CASE.

Tobe Maides Said to Have Peddled Whiskey—Arrested.

Tobe Maides, a negro, who is alleged to have peddled whiskey from a suit case and to have made a business of making regular trips on Monday and Wednesday night to Wrightsville Sound, is in the toils of the law. Special Officer H. Mack Godwin swore out the warrant before Justice Harriss and Deputy Sheriff Kelly served it. The negro when arrested is said to have owned up to peddling whiskey. He went to jail in default of bond and will be tried today before Justice Harriss.

The negroes lately have been having dances at Wrightsville Sound several times a week and there has been some complaint because of many of them getting full of whiskey. This caused the officers to make an investigation and Maides was finally trailed down.

GEORGIA TECH WITHDRAWS.

From Southern Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Announcement was made here tonight by the authorities of the Georgia School of Technology that it had withdrawn from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Its action followed a similar course recently taken by the officials of Vanderbilt University at Nashville. Dissatisfaction with the association's rule which prevents members having an enrollment of more than 400 students playing first year students on athletic teams is said to have been the chief reason for the action.

Newport, R. I., July 10.—The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, here, is the principal figure in society's ranks. She is being widely entertained. The accompanying picture is a snapshot which shows that the duchess likes to be amused by the young men in the society colony. Secretary Gonina, of the Russian embassy, and the fair duchess were snapped just as the diplomatic official was doing a few stunts for the amusement of the titled visitor.

COTTON MAKES ADVANCE

Close Steady and 2 to 12 Points Higher After Decline at the Opening.

New York, July 10.—After an opening decline carried August and October into new low ground for the movement, the cotton market steadied and closed very steady at an advance of 2 to 12 points.

Private reports indicating further scattering showers in the Southwest caused some selling in Liverpool before the local opening and the market here started at a decline of 1 to 8 points in response to cables.

Offerings, however, were much less active and general than earlier in the week, leading to claims that the market had been pretty well liquidated. Prices soon turned steadier on covering, local bull support and talk of an improving trade demand around the 12 cent level.

Some realizing was encountered as the market worked upward, owing to profit taking by early buyers, but was readily absorbed and closing prices were within a point or two of the best. December contracts led the advance, selling 21 points above the low level of Wednesday and there seemed to be continued selling of October against purchases of later months.

Liverpool and New Orleans houses were both buyers of new crop months here on the early decline and spot house brokers bought December on the afternoon advance. Week-end figures were about as expected

Cotton futures closed very steady.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

New York, July 10.—Dun's Review will say tomorrow:

"Irregularity still characterizes the business situation. Favorable reports predominate and general conditions afford encouragement, although the volume of new business is of moderate proportions. Indications of improvement are noted in iron and steel where a turn for the better is at last apparent. The better ment was accompanied by some strengthening of price and few manufacturers are disposed to book future contracts at present figures. Manufacturers of textiles are endeavoring to meet the slackened demand by curtailing the output and stocks of a goods are stated to be in a well liquidated position. Most interests in the trade are anticipating a more active period later on as a consequence of abundant crops. Shoe manufacturers are more optimistic.

"Of the 317 commodity quotations combined by Dun's Review there were 23 advances and 17 declines this week, this being the first occasion in some time that the general trend of the leading farm products has been upward.

"Commercial failures were 293 against 238 last year."

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Market Has Been Unsettled and Prices Have Made New Low Ground.

New York, July 10.—Selling has not been so heavy and aggressive as it was right after the publication of the July bureau report, but the cotton market has been unsettled during the past week and prices have made new low ground for the movement with October contracts selling $5 per bale under the high records of June 1. The decline has been accompanied by more or less bearish talk in local circles, and predictions of still lower prices have evidently been encouraged by unfavorable trade advices, good weather over the greater part of the belt, and an impression that the crop has continued to improve since the government secured the bureau report for the last condition report.

The smaller exports of cotton goods for the month of June as shown by British board of trade returns and the talk of curtailment among domestic mills leading to predictions of a falling off in supply and distribution figures for the past month, have figured in bearish predictions, but there has been some uneasiness as to the crop outlook in Texas where very little rain has fallen since the middle of June. Scattering showers have been reported in that section during the two or three days, but they have not been sufficiently heavy or general entirely to relieve apprehensions, while some traders have taken the short time recommendations for the governing committee of the International Spinners' Federation as indicating a slack immediate demand and a desire to influence raw material markets.

The situation in this respect combined with bull predictions of bigger demands from spinners around the 12-cent level has probably restricted fresh offerings for short account on the decline, and seemed to be largely responsible for today's rally of some 15 or 20 points from the lowest.

SOME NEW LOW RECORDS

New York, July 10.—Investment issues began to show the cumulative effect of the continued heavy selling of Gould issue, New Haven, Chesapeake & Ohio, and other low priced securities. These and other stocks and bonds established new low records. The New Haven and C. & O. declines were especially noteworthy because they savored strongly of liquidation.

The sale of minor international railway stocks, without interest, pending actual delivery, indicated that foreign holders were pressing the sale of American securities.

London was heavy on recrudescence of the Ulster troubles, with money and discounts higher.

The local market was weak and in the final hour selling of the leaders overshadowed previous dealings in the unimportant stocks. Speculative favorites fell 1 to 3 points with little or no recovery. The character of the general market may be gauged from a 10-point decline in the 5 per cent bonds of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad, whose affairs are involved in the 'Frisco receivership. A few crumbs of comfort were offered in the course of the day, the United States Steel Corporation reporting a slight increase of tonnage for June. A wide variety of bonds was pressed for sale, but recessions were only nominal except in certain issues, where special influences operated.

Total sales, par value, $1,423,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call.

"BLIND TIGER" BUSINESS IS GREATLY REDUCED.

Decrease of 50 Per Cent in Six Months at Newbern.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., July 10.—During the past six months there has probably been a decrease of at least 50 per cent in the violation in Newbern of the Federal and State laws regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors and this assertion is borne out by the records of the courts and the reports of the city, county and Federal officers, in the city proper the police report that they find that but very little whiskey and beer has been sold in the past few months and the county officials duplicate this statement. The same condition also prevails in the Federal courts.

United States Commissioner Charles B. Hill was interviewed on this matter yesterday and he stated that the number of violations of the internal revenue law in this district since January 1, 1914, have been unusually small and that in fact, fewer cases have been sent up before Judge H. G. Connor, who presides over the Federal court in this district, during this period than in any similar period in a number of years.

FORCED TO PAY BILL. MAN SUES FOR $10,000

Claims His Wife's Health Was Affected by His Appearance in Court.

Asheville, N. C., July 9.—Because he was forced to pay a bill of $65, David Gross, of this city, seeks damages in the sum of $10,000 in a suit instituted in the Buncombe County Superior Court yesterday, against Patrick McIntyre. The plaintiff bases his claims on the allegations that he decided to leave Asheville about a year ago, finding that he could not earn a livelihood here, and called on his creditors to tell them that he had a position at Cleveland to collect the bill; that just meet his obligations; that Mr. McIntyre agreed to wait until he went to Cleveland to collect the bill; that jus before his departure he was sued in the court of a magistrate for the sum, and he paid it; that by reason of his appearance in court his wife, who was in delicate health, was subjected to severe mental and physical suffering and that his character was defamed.

ULSTER UNIONISTS GIVE CARSON A FREE HAND

To Use His Judgment in Calling Ulster Volunteers to Arms.

Belfast, July 10.—The "provisional government" formed by the Ulster Unionists at its first meeting today gave Sir Edward Carson a free hand to take whatever action he may think necessary in calling the Ulster volunteers to arms. The men were declared ready for mobilization at a moment's notice.

Sir Edward Carson, in a speech, declared that the time had come for the loyalists of Ulster to translate their words into action. He said something must be done to compel the British government to make up its mind. Ulster, he concluded, was anxious for peace but was not going to accept peace with surrender.

London, July 10.—A special dispatch from Cairo, Egypt, says the Anglo-Egyptian members of the Ulster volunteers have received cablegrams calling them back to Ulster.

SECRETARY DANIELS NAMES QUARTETTE OF BATTLESHIPS

Four New Dreadnoughts, Which Begin With No. 39.

Washington, July 10.—Secretary Daniels announced today that the latest four new dreadnoughts, beginning with No. 39, would be named Arizona, California, Mississippi and Idaho. The last two were so named in order that the States of Mississippi and Idaho might not lose their ships because of the recent sale of two battleships to Greece.

"It isn't every day," said Secretary Daniels, as he announced the names of the new vessels, "that a Secretary of the Navy has the privilege of naming a quartette of battleships. With the newly named battleships, every State in the Union now has a battleship named for it except Maryland, Montana, South Dakota, Washington, West Virginia, Colorado, North Carolina, New Mexica and Tennessee."

In the future, the armored cruiser California will be known as the San Diego.

ILLEGAL TO CHARGE FOR USE OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

So Declares the Appellate Division of the N. Y. Supreme Court.

New York, July 10.—Commercialized use of Christian Science teaching was held by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court today to be illegal.

The conviction in a lower court of Willis Vernon Cole for practicing medicine without a license when he accepted fees for Christian Science treatment, was sustained. The higher court, in its opinion, answered in the negative its premise:

"Is the commercialized use of prayer for the avowed purpose of treating all persons seeking cure for all kinds of bodily ills the practice of the religious tenets of a church?"

Clifford P. Smith, of the committee on publication of the Christian Science church, issued a statement later declaring the practice of Christian Science differed from the practice of medicine, and that it "could not be made the same by law."

It was announced that in all probability the case would be appealed.

The appeals probably will be based on a dissenting opinion of Justice Dowling, saying that if Cole indulged simply in silent prayer with his patients there was nothing unlawful in the act, as by so doing Cole might honestly believe he was "assisting the cure of the alleged maladies" by placing his patients in "the proper spiritual attitude" toward their Maker.

THIRD DEATH FROM BUBONIC PLAGUE IN NEW ORLEANS.

Officials Now Looking for Another Focus of Infection.

New Orleans, July 10.—Following the death here today from bubonic plague of Leon DeJean, aged 28, a negro, health authorities began an investigation to ascertain if a new focus of infection exists. Although DeJean resides miles from the Industrial Home of the Volunteers of America, where two cases of plague were discovered, he was employed at a produce house well within the zone first placed under strict quarantine regulations.

Dr. William C. Rucker, assistant surgeon general of the public health service, who is in charge of plague eradication work here, stated tonight that he could not determine the existence of a new focus of infection until epidemological studies had been made.

DeJean was placed under observation in an isolation hospital on July 5th, but his malady was not confirmed as plague until today, following bacteriological tests. Two negroes and one white man have died from plague since the contagion was discovered here on June 27th. No other cases have been reported.

—A fire in the meat house of Armour & Co., on South Water street, yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, called out the firemen. They were soon able to extinguish the flames and the only damage was the burning of 2,000 pounds of meat. The loss is about $500. The fire is supposed to have started from the furnace which is used for smoking meat.

G. W. TWIFORD DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME.

Was One of Dare County's Prominent Citizens.

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 9.—G. W. Twiford, one of Dare county's most prominent citizens, died suddenly last night at 11 o'clock at his home in Mann's Harbor. He was in his usual health until a short time before he expired, when he was seized with an attack of heart failure, from which he never rallied. The funeral services will be conducted over the body Friday afternoon, and the interment will take place in the family burying ground.

GETS 18 YEARS IN PEN.

Prominent Young Virginian Convicted of Second Degree Murder.

Martinsville, Va., July 10. — Orrin Nunn, a prominent young man who has been on trial here since Thursday for the murder of Douglas Lawrence, a young farmer of near Mountain Valley, on the night of October 21st, last, was found guilty by the jury late this afternoon of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary.

John Scott, a few minutes later pleading guilty to the charge of murdering his wife a month ago at Henry station, Va., was sentenced by the judge to life imprisonment. This is the first instance under the operation of the new Virginia statute whereby a court or jury exercised option as to imposing the death penalty or life imprisonment for first degree murder.

BOMBARDMENT REPORTED.

Of Bordas' Camp by the South Carolina and Machias.

Santo Domingo, July 10.—The National steamer Viking, which arrived here today from Puerto Plata, reports that the United States battleship South Carolina and the gunboat Machias recently bombarded the Bordas camp at San Marcos. President Bordas has been attemping to drive out the revolutionists at Puerto Plata.

The Dominican government, it is understood, has entered a protest against the action of the United States warships. Revolutionists who invaded the Santo Domingo district have been routed and are being pursued by government troops. Reports from the North say the conditions are quiet and rebels at LaVega and Santiago de Los Caballeros have disbanded.

A Bond Worth Par

A Certificate of Deposit issued by this Bank is a 4 per cent Bond which is always worth par and can always be sold at par to any person. It may be used in the payment of almost any obligation the same as money without even visiting the Bank. At the Bank it is always worth 100 cents on the dollar and may be exchanged for cash at a moment's notice. Outside of banking hours, almost any business man will accept it for its full face value plus the interest already accrued.

As an investment it has some advantages over a Government Bond as it can be cashed at any Bank.

DOUBLY GUARD ROCKEFELLER AFTER FATAL BOMB EXPLOSION IN NEW YORK TENEMENT

New York, July 9.—Anarchists and I. W. W. leaders are planning a public funeral for three of the four victims of the bomb wrecked tenement in Lexington avenue. These three men were suspected by the police of having manufactured the bomb in a flat in the tenement for the purpose of killing John D. Rockefeller. The other victim of the explosion was an innocent woman. Many of the other 105 occupants of the building were injured. The funeral of the three men will be held on July 10, and may be made the occasion of an anarchist demonstration in Union Square. Meanwhile Rockefeller's home near Tarrytown, N. Y., is doubly guarded.
